What's On?

This summer at Olio & Farina we are hosting more of our regular events and also introducing some new ones which we hope will become just as popular.

Cucina Club Supper : On the first Friday of every month Richard & Belinda host our home-made, fixed price 2 and 3 course menus from £15.99 including a glass of wine.

Pasta Making: Make your own pasta and let us serve it to you with a glass of wine. Demonstration, instruction and sauce included! £20 per person.

Wine Tasting: Come and sample 6 Italian wines matched to authentic Italian appetizers. £17.50 per person.

Wild Food: An introduction to locally foraged wild food. Join us for an informative and magical evening giving you the opportunity to experience a freshly prepared meal of foraged food with an Italian twist. £20 per person.

Roman Feast: Join us for our Roman Feast and sample the fruits of a summers' research into the delights, delicacies and (un)savouries of Roman cuisine. 6 courses each matched to its' own wine from our new selection. Certainly the occasional surprise and definitely an education for all of us! Toga's not compulsory, Tickets £48 per person.

What do you think?

Belinda has been lying awake at night cooking up things for us all to do in the evenings! Before she gets carried away we'd like your input. The short list includes a book club, film nights and learning conversational Italian. If you think you would be interested in these or have any ideas of your own, please let us know.
